GLOBAL REPS IMPACTED

The MBG Hub redesign transformed sales productivity by solving content discoverability challenges, delivering an 8.84% reduction in call prep time and 2.75% sales lift for 3,000+ global sales reps.

OBJECTIVES

Diagnose why the existing sales knowledge repository wasn't meeting user needs and redesign the platform to improve productivity, increase adoption, and ensure sales teams could quickly find approved materials during critical client conversations.

Challenges

- Sales teams spending 8+ hours/week searching for materials
- Low knowledge repository adoption despite extensive content
- Teams creating unapproved materials, creating compliance risk
- Inadequate search functionality and content discoverability

Benefits

- 8.84% reduction in call prep time
- 2.75% sales lift for heavy platform users
- 71% increase in traffic quarter-over-quarter
- 53% increase in material downloads

SOLUTIONS

Root Cause Analysis
Conducted research, polls, and surveys across global sales teams to identify that search functionality — not content quality — was the primary barrier to adoption.

Cross-Functional Leadership
Assembled and led Engineering, UX, Research, Design, Web Development, and Sales teams through a complete platform redesign prioritizing user workflow.

Strategic Positioning
Reframed project as dual opportunity — productivity gains plus sales effectiveness improvement — to secure executive buy-in and cross-functional resources.

Agile Problem-Solving
When search improvements alone proved insufficient, pivoted to complete UX overhaul, advocating for user needs over technical constraints.

BENEFITS

Productivity Gains
8.84% reduction in call prep time saved sales teams approximately 4 hours per person per quarter across 3,000+ global reps.

Revenue Impact
2.75% sales lift for heavy platform users demonstrated direct business value from improved sales effectiveness and consistent messaging.

Sustained Adoption Growth
71% traffic increase and 53% download increase QoQ, with 25% Q3→Q4 and 38% Q4→Q1 gains proving sustained engagement.

Strategic Framework
Established user-first approach and cross-functional model that became template for future sales tool development and launches.
